GAMBLERS HACK

LEAL WITH KNIFE

Crab Shooters Make
Murderous Attack
On Chief

As the result of attempting to break up a crab game, Chief Leal is today suffering from a severely cut hand. Shortly after dusk last night, Leal was driving up Vineyard street, past Camp No. 2, when he noticed that a crab game was being carried on with the aid of a lantern. He was enabled to approach within a very short distance, because being in a buggy he was not recognized, and spreading from the vehicle he made a rush towards the offenders. They scattered in all directions with the exception of Kanehaku, a drunken Hawaiian who greeted him with a flow of vile epithets. The Chief arrested him but the gang on seeing the capture of their comrade, returned to the rescue. In the consequent melee Leal's hand was severely cut. Struggling, pushing, shouting and swearing, the mob handled him very roughly and it might have gone badly with the Chief of Detectives, had it not been for the timely assistance of an employee of the Honolulu Iron Works, who, seeing his predicament, rushed into the fray and the mob then soon dispersed, leaving Joe with his prisoner. When the latter sobered up, Leal is in hopes of obtaining the names of his other assailants.

BRIGHT MAY NOT

BE TRIED HERE

Sheriff Jarrett has just received word from Hilo that Charles Bright, alias John Baker, has a record of five convictions for gross cheat. The message came in response to a wireless message sent by Sheriff Pua of Hawaii, who is in the city at present, to Deputy Sheriff Fetter of Hilo, and the answer was handed to Sheriff Jarrett last evening.

The Sheriff does not exactly know how to interpret the message, whether he has been convicted five times and served sentences or whether the five convictions are hanging over him, if the latter is the case, then Sheriff Pua will be allowed to take him back to Hilo, should he, however, not be wanted in his own town, he will come up for trial before Judge Andrade in the Police Court here.

ARMORY NEEDED BY

NATIONAL GUARD

An armory is much needed in Honolulu and the fact is impressed on anyone who happens to visit the present Drill Shed. There are absolutely no conveniences for the men and even the common decencies of life are lacking. The old drillshed at the rear of the Executive building is a disgrace to a city like Honolulu, and the sooner something is done to erect a new up-to-date building the better it will be for the public and the men of the militia.

The N. G. H. compares favorably with any similar militia body in the States and they are at least entitled to as much consideration. Colonel Joseph feels very strongly on the matter of the drillshed and is doing all in his power to have the situation charged.

NEW WIRELESS

STATION AT KUHUKU.

With the absorption of the Wireless Telegraph Company, the Mutual Telephone Company today begins the work of constructing a telegraph line direct to Kahuku. This will take the place of the wireless telegraph station at Barber's Point, which is to be abandoned, the buildings hold and the equipment distributed among the other stations.

In the future all inter-island and shipping messages will be handled via Kahuku. Manager Balch says the new arrangement will prevent the numerous breaks that have occurred on the route, and is expected to greatly facilitate the handling of wireless business.

KAUAI ASSOCIATION

WON'T SUPPLY CASH.

No financial assistance from the Kauai High Wage Association has reached the local organization since Treasurer Yamashiro of the Oahu Higher Wage Association wired them for the same. A representative from the north island paid a visit of investigation here some time ago and evidently decided that the Association has not sufficient support from the higher class of Japanese here.

JAPANESE WOMEN

DETAINED FROM WORK.

The Higher Wage Association are still busy, and on Sunday evening their emissaries prevented fifteen Japanese from going to work at the Wahiwa Pineapple Cannery as they were attempting to board the train at the O. R. & I. Station.

There are about forty women wanted at the Cannery, and it was with considerable difficulty that the aforesaid fifteen were gathered together.
